CAN THE CHURCH DISAPPEAR? A SHORT HISTORY OF THE CHURCH IN THE LIGHT OF THE RESURRECTION

By Didier Rance

This book develops an original approach to History, resolutely turned towards hope, by looking at ten "deaths" of the Church followed by a "resurrection"; ten times of peril, of danger, of risk of disappearing. In these difficult and uncertain times, the author tries to snatch the readers from the temptation of despair by showing that the Spirit has already raised the Church from mortal perils many times.

CHURCH OF MARY, CHURCH OF PETER – TO BETTER UNDERSTAND THE PLACE OF WOMEN IN THE CHURCH

By Sandra Bureau

The words "woman" and "Church" refer, in popular thinking, to more than one antagonism, objection, or division. The purpose of this book is not to discuss these quarrels, but to understand that women have their place in the Church, a place that is not and cannot be the simple fruit of feminist demands, but that belongs from the beginning to the plan of God.

WHAT KEEPS UP GOING IN TIMES OF UNCERTAINTY, THE BRIGHT HOPE

By Paul Valadier

In times of turmoil, such as the crisis we are going through, the question of the Christian hope, of what keeps us going when everything seems to be compromised, becomes an essential question. In these pages, as incisive as inspired, Paul Valadier invites us to carry out a salutary work of discernment to help us find true hope. He succeeds in showing that, despite the impasses of our recent history, there is always a golden thread that invigorates us and opens us to the transcendence of eternal life.
